25X1A 2. @ Congressional source informs me that Mr. ^{25X1A} a former CIA employee now employed by the Department of the Army, testified in Executive Session "the other night" before the Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee. Mr. is alleged to have identified two perverts at CIA. Source also informed me that Don Surine was serving as the front man for the staff in investigating CIA, but that the staff man more immediately involved was Richard O'Melia. In addition, there were many others working on the problem who were not Committee employees. 9 Mar. 1954

25X1X 4. Mr. Schroeder, of the staff of the Senate Immigration Subcommittee, informs me that the Welker task force is considering recalling as they may have a perjury case against him as well as other things. Following that, the Committee is thinking of calling
